2018 Artist Retreats in the South of France

At Centre Quaker de Congénies, located in a lovely valley between the Cévennes Mountains & the Mediterranean Sea

Friday 11 May to Monday 21 of May And Friday 21 September to Monday 1st of October

- 6-10 days of creating and camaraderie.
- Transportation to interesting venues to paint, but the peaceful garden and surrounding village may be sufficient.
- There will be a facilitator from Saturday evening to Friday morning. The other 4 days are optional for continuing projects or sightseeing.
- Facilitator: Kate Hale, art teacher, advisor and community artist in a broad range of media.
- Open format: Each day planned according to choice: work collectively or separately.
- Non-artist partners welcome.

Other Activities:

There will be evening activities, including music, and we offer bicycles (or will lead a trip) for anyone who would enjoy a ride through medieval villages with their fountains, churches and cafes—all begging to be immortalized with your paint brush, pen or camera.

Combine or extend your stay to continue creating or view local sights such as Pont du Gard, Arena in Nimes, walled town of Aigues-Mortes, or some Provençal attraction. Enjoy walking, cycling, kayaking, horse-riding, etc.

Cost:

The program cost will be 695€ (575€ for shared occupancy) and includes 6 nights' accommodation, all meals and transportation to local painting spots. The optional days are 92€ (68€ shared) per day and include accommodation, some transportation, breakfast and dinner (lunch on your own).

All are welcome, Friends and friends
